

My family and I have been enjoying the benefits of the Indiana Telephone Privacy program. We are opposed to weakening the law by allowing banks to utilize the "established business relationship" exemption.